SUPPLEMENT 1 - KASKASKIA EXCHANGE

For General, Exchange Telecommunications Service, Station Service and Telecommunications Channel Service in the Kaskaskia Exchange, the Illinois Bell Telephone Company concurs in the rates and regulations governing such service in the St. Marys, Missouri Exchange as published by Southwestern Bell Telephone Company in the AT&T Missouri Guidebook. For a listing of where various services are now found, refer to the Alphabetical Subject Index found in Part 1, Section 3 of the AT&T Missouri Guidebook.

Note: Paragraph B. Supplemental Schedules of Additional Charges, as described in FEES, CHARGES (C) AND CREDITS in Part 2, Section 2, are applicable.

/1/ Urban Service Only

/2/ The 2PR (i.e., 2-Party line) grade of service will not be provided to new customers on and after October 27, 1980. Each 2-Party customer of record on that date may continue such grade of service at the present address until one year from the time the Company provides sufficient facilities to upgrade all lines in the Kaskaskia Exchange to 1-Party service. However, all 7-Party line services will be terminated no later than December 31, 1983. In the event such grade of service of any such customer is terminated either by disconnection or by changing to a different type, grade, or class of service or by changing to another address, such grade of service will not be reestablished.

SUPPLEMENT 2 - McCLURE EXCHANGE

For General, Exchange Telecommunications Service, Station Service and Telecommunications Channel Service in the McClure Exchange, the Illinois Bell Telephone Company concurs in the rates and regulations governing such service in the Cape Girardeau, Missouri Exchange as published by Southwestern Bell Telephone Company in the AT&T Missouri Guidebook.
