

GENERAL

All terms and conditions set forth in this Section, including but not limited to those applicable to "line(s)" and "network access line" shall be fully applicable to port(s) as defined in Part 19, Section 1.

A. Directory Distribution^{/1/}

(C)

1. Each customer shall receive, upon issuance, one copy of the directory, where available, which serves that customer. Upon customer request, the Company shall furnish, without charge, directories, where available, for up to five other exchanges in the same area code for each main station line serving that customer. Additional directories within, or any directories outside such customer's area code, will be furnished, where available, when requested by the customer at the rates set forth in the Directory Price List in paragraph B. following. Shipping and handling charges of $4.25 per directory shall apply for such additional directories or for directories outside the customer's area code. (C)
(C)
2. The Company may charge for directories issued in replacement of those lost, destroyed, defaced, or mutilated while in the possession of a customer at the rates specified in B. following. The Company also reserves the discretion to furnish additional directories without charge, upon request by a customer, where available and where such provision will lead to a more efficient use of the service by that particular customer. Shipping and handling charges of $4.25 per directory shipped shall apply to all directories for which the Company charges pursuant to this paragraph A.2. (C)
3. Distribution of directories is classified as neither local exchange nor interexchange telecommunications service.

^{/1/} Pursuant to Illinois Commerce Commission Order issued on June 21, 2016, in Docket No. 16-0066, in the matter of Dex Media, Inc. Petition for Partial Waivers of Sections 732.50(a) and (c), 735.180(a)(1), 735.180(d), and 735.180(l) and Section 756.110 of Title 83 of the Administrative Code, Directory publication may be done via print or digitally online. Upon request the customer may opt-in to receive a print directory at no charge until the company ceases to provide upon-request delivery in the customer's local directory market. Customers may also view available directories online at no charge. (N)
