

1. CROSS BOUNDARY FOREIGN EXCHANGE (CBFX) SERVICE<sup>/2/</sup>

(C)

A. DESCRIPTION

Cross Boundary Foreign Exchange Service is Network Access Line service furnished from a Central Office adjacent to the Exchange normally serving the area in which the Customer is located. It is not available in connection with Public or Semi-Public Communications service or Customer Owned Coin Operated Telephone Service.

Cross Boundary Foreign Exchange Service may be furnished between two Exchanges of Wisconsin Bell, Inc. or between an Exchange of Wisconsin Bell, Inc. and an Exchange of an independent telephone company in the State of Wisconsin, when the independent company is willing to concur in arrangements for the furnishing of such service. In those cases where a portion of the service is furnished by an independent company, the rates and regulations of the independent company apply to the part of the service it furnishes.

B. REGULATIONS

Cross Boundary Foreign Exchange service shall not be used for resale of service as described in Part 2, Section 2, of this guidebook. This prohibition shall not apply to a Customer who is a communications Common Carrier in a public message telegram business.

Cross Boundary Foreign Exchange service will be provided between adjacent Exchanges through facilities the Company deems most economical. If special construction is required, construction charges in Part 2, Section 5, apply.

Cross Boundary Foreign Exchange service Customers have the same Basic Exchange Services and Local Service Area, the same rates for Message Toll Service and the same Rules and Regulations as apply in the foreign Exchange from which the service is furnished.

Cross Boundary Foreign Exchange service is prohibited between Exchanges which are within each other's Local Service Area, as defined in Part 2, Section 1, for Customer accounts established at their present location after December 22, 1983, except as noted below.<sup>1</sup>

/1/ Cross Boundary Foreign Exchange Service is allowed to Jackson or Hubertus exchange end users residing in the Village of Germantown for the purpose of providing dialtone from the Cedarburg, Thiensville, or Menomonee Falls exchanges, pursuant to P.S.C. of Wisconsin letter order in Docket No. 6720-TV-117, dated December 18, 1998.

/2/ Effective 10/1/2012, Residence Cross Boundary Foreign Exchange Service will no longer be offered to new residence customers. Current subscribers may continue the service until they move or make any changes to their service. (N) | (N)

Cross Boundary Extension/Station Line service consists of Company provided outside plant facilities which provide Telecommunications Services between the location where Network Access Line service is provided and Customer Premises on either Continuous or non-Continuous Property.

Cross Boundary Extension/Station Line service may be furnished between two Exchanges of the Company or between an Exchange of the Company and an independent company in the State of Wisconsin, when the independent company is willing to concur in arrangements for the furnishing of such service. In those cases where a portion of the service is furnished by an independent company, the rates and regulations of the independent company apply to the part of the service it furnishes.

B. REGULATIONS

Cross Boundary Extension/Station Line service may be either Extension or Station Line service provided with Cross Boundary Foreign Exchange service or Extension or Station lines located in an Exchange adjacent to the Customer's serving Exchange.

Cross Boundary Extension/Station Line service is furnished only where facilities will permit satisfactory transmission. Construction charges as described in Part 2, Section 5, apply if additional equipment is required to improve transmission or signaling.

The amount and nature of the telecommunications equipment which may be permanently bridged to the Network Access Line is limited to such as will not, in the judgment of the Company, adversely affect the quality of the Telecommunications Services provided.

Cross Boundary Extension/Station Line service may not be provided with Centrex service.

Cross Boundary Extension/Station Line service terminations must be located where use can be restricted to those entitled to use of the Customer's service.

Cross Boundary Extension/Station Line service will be provided between adjacent Exchanges through facilities the Company deems most economical.

/1/ Effective 10/1/2012, Cross Boundary Foreign Exchange Service will no longer be offered to new residence customers. Current subscribers may continue the service until they move or make any changes to their service. (N) | (N)
